Parent Quotes...

“Our guide was outstanding in every aspect. She provided me with a lot of comfort, made us aware of programs and gave us support to pursue them.”

“In our experience, the deaf/hard of hearing role models are warm and welcoming ambassadors. They replace the fear of the unknown with the safety of community.”

PARENT TO PARENT

Congratulations on your new baby and welcome to the very supportive deaf/hard of hearing community. Our kids are older now, but we were once parents of babies and toddlers identified deaf or hard of hearing. We recognize this can be an overwhelming and emotional time for families. What helped? Having contact with other parents – we felt less isolated and better prepared.

We want you to feel encouraged knowing there are many resources and services available to you. Starting out we knew very little and we were in a similar position to where you might be now. We learned the most helpful things to do were:

- connect with other parents and adults who are deaf or hard of hearing
- begin early language services

Guide By Your Side provides:

- Parent Guides to listen, share experiences & resources
- Deaf and Hard of Hearing Guides to share a positive perspective from their day-to-day life as a Deaf or Hard of Hearing adult
- Support from Guides who are trained to be unbiased and encourage information from a variety of perspectives
- Compassion and knowledge from parents who have a deaf/hard of hearing child and adult role models who have grown up deaf/hard of hearing

Why is this Support Service important?

- It offers experience from Guides who know what it is like to raise a deaf/hard of hearing child or have grown up deaf/hard of hearing
- It gives the family a chance to connect with others who are traveling along the same path
- It helps families identify communication opportunities

Who is eligible for the Guide By Your Side program?

In BC, Guide By Your Side is offered to families of infants and very young children identified through newborn hearing screening.
